Include this form with your tax return.

Purpose of Form

Due to a recent Iowa law change, net operating losses (NOLs) are no longer separately calculated for Iowa tax purposes. Taxpayers should use this form to calculate any pre-2023 federal NOL carryforward that must be added back or any pre-2023 Iowa NOL that may be deducted. The IA 123 (individual and fiduciary) and IA 1120 Schedule F (corporate income and franchise) have been discontinued.

Who must file?

This form must be used by all individual (IA 1040), fiduciary (IA 1041), corporate income (IA 1120), or franchise (IA 1120F) filers with either federal NOL carryforwards from losses incurred in a tax year prior to 2023 and deducted in the current year (Part I), or with Iowa NOL carryforwards from losses incurred in a tax year prior to 2023 available to deduct in the current year (Part II).

Include this form with your tax return for any year in which you have any federal or Iowa NOL carryforward from a tax year beginning before January 1, 2023.

This form may be used by taxpayers filing IA 1120, IA 1120F, IA 1040, or IA 1041.
