2025 Iowa Special Assessment Property Tax Credit Claim Instructions

Who is eligible?

Total household income was not more than $13,507 and:

- Age 65 or older by December 31, 2024, or
- Totally disabled and age 18 or older by December 31, 2024.

Household income includes your income and your spouse's income, if living together, and monetary contributions received from other persons living with you. If you and your spouse are not living together, each may file a separate claim.

Line 1: Iowa taxable income - Enter the amount of Iowa taxable income from your state individual income tax return (IA 1040, Step 4, Line 4). Do not include any net operating loss. If you did not file a 2024 IA 1040, use the IA 1040 to calculate the amount on Step 4, line 4 and enter it on this line. If you are unable to use the IA 1040, enter the amount of your wages, salaries, unemployment compensation, tips, bonuses, commissions, dividends, distributions, or any profit from a business that exceeds the applicable standard deduction amount or itemized deductions amount, if you itemize deductions. For information about the standard deduction amount, see IRS Publication 501. If you are below age 65 and not required to file an IA 1040 for the 2024 tax year because you are below the income threshold, enter zero. If you live with your spouse, include their income. If less than zero, enter zero.

Lines 2-10: Any amounts entered on these lines shall be amounts not already included in line 1.

Line 2: In-kind assistance - Enter any portion of your housing expenses, including utilities, that were paid for you. Do not include Federal Energy Assistance.

Line 3: Title 19 benefits - Enter your Title 19 benefits received for housing expenses. Do not include medical benefits.

Line 4: Social Security income - Enter the total Social Security benefits received, even if not reportable for income tax purposes. Include any Medicare premiums withheld. Do not include child insurance benefits received by a member of your household.

Line 5: Disability income and workers' compensation - Enter the total received for disability or workers' compensation, even if not reportable for income tax purposes.

Line 6: All retirement income - Enter the total amount received from a governmental or other pension or retirement plan, including defined benefit or defined contribution plans; annuities; individual retirement accounts; plans maintained or contributed to by an employer, or maintained and contributed to by a self-employed person as an employer; and deferred compensation plans or any earnings attributable to the deferred compensation plan. Include retirement pay for military service, even if not reportable for income tax purposes.

Line 7: Interest income from federal, state, or local governments - Enter interest income from federal, state, and local governments.

Line 8: Capital gains and income from a farm tenancy agreement - Enter any capital gain received from the sale or exchange of capital assets that is not already included in line 1. Capital losses are limited to the same amount that you are allowed to report for income tax purposes. Any loss must be offset against gain, and a net loss must be reported as zero. Enter the amount of income from a farm tenancy agreement covering real property that is not already included in line 1.

Line 9: Money received from others living with you - Enter money received from others living with you. Do not include goods and services received.

Line 10: Other income - Enter total income received from the following sources:

- Child support and alimony payments.
- Welfare payments. Include Family Investment Program (FIP), children's Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and all other welfare program cash payments. Do not include foster grandparents' stipends or non-cash government assistance (ex: food, clothing, food stamps, medical supplies, etc.).
- Insurance income not reported elsewhere.
- Gambling, and all other income, not reported elsewhere.

Line 12: Medical and care expenses - Enter all medical and necessary care expenses paid during the year which were related to your disability. These are the same as you are allowed to deduct for federal income tax. Do not enter an amount on line 12 unless you are totally disabled and incurred medical or care expenses attributable to your disability.

Line 13: Total household income - Subtract line 12 from line 11. If more than $13,507 no credit is allowed.
